¹THE OFFICERS OF PARLIAMENT (ADVANCES FOR MOTOR-CARS) RULES, 1953

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section II read with Section 8 of the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act, 1953 (20 of 1953), the Central Government, in consultation with the Chairman of the Council of States and the Speaker of the House of the People, hereby makes the following rules to regulate the grant of advances to Officers of Parliament for the purchase of motor-cars, namely :-

1. Short title and commencement .— (1) These Rules may be called the Officers of Parliament (Advances for Motor-Cars) Rules, 1953.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of May, 1953.

2. Maximum amount of advance .— ²{(1)} The maximum amount which may be advanced to an Officer of Parliament for the purchase of a motor-car shall not exceed ³(Rupees one lakh) or the actual price of the motor-car which is intended to be purchased, whichever is less,

⁴{(2) The amount of the advance under sub-rule (1) shall be sanctioned in the name of the President and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Authentication (Orders and other instruments) Rules, 1958}

3. Repayment of Advance— ⁵“(1) Recovery of the advance granted under rule 2, together with interest thereon, shall be made from the salary bill of the Officer of Parliament concerned in not more than sixty equal monthly installments, The Government may, however, permit recovery to be made in a smaller number of installments if the Officer of Parliament receiving the advance so desires. The deduction shall commence with the first issue of salary after the advance is drawn. Simple interest at the rate fixed by the Government for the purpose of purchase of conveyances by Government servants, shall be charged on the advance,

Explanation .—The amount of the advance to be recovered monthly shall be fixed in whole rupees, except in the case of last installment when the remaining balance including any fraction of a rupee shall be recovered.”}

(2) In case an Officer of Parliament relinquishes office before the advance is fully repaid, the outstanding balance together with interest thereon shall be paid to Government immediately in one lump sum.

⁴ Added-Notification dated 19-9-1963(ibid)

⁵ Substituted vide Notification dated 19-9-1963 ibid.

4. Sale of motor-car .— (1) Except when an Officer of Parliament relinquishes his office, previous sanction of Government shall be obtained for the sale by the Officer of Parliament of the motor car purchased with the aid of an advance, if such advance together with the interest accrued thereon, has not been fully repaid. If an Officer of Parliament wishes to transfer the motor car to another Officer of Parliament he may be permitted under the orders of Government to transfer the liability attaching to the motor car to the later Officer of Parliament, provided that the purchasing officer of Parliament records a declaration that he is aware that the motor car transferred to him remains subject to the mortgage bond and that he is bound by its terms and provisions.

(2) In all cases where a motor car is sold before the advance received for its purchase from Government with Interest has been fully repaid, the sale-proceeds must be applied, so far as may be necessary, towards the repayment of such outstanding balance, provided that when the motor car is sold only in order that another motor car may be purchased, Government may permit the Officer of Parliament to apply the sale proceeds towards such purchase, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) the amount outstanding shall not be permitted to exceed the cost of the new car;
- (b) the amount outstanding shall continue to be repaid at the rate previously fixed; .and
- (c) the new car shall be insured and mortgaged to Government.

5. Period within which negotiations for purchase of car may be completed—An Officer of Parliament who draws an advance for the purchase of a motor car, shall complete his negotiations for the purchase of, and pay finally for, the motor-car within one month of the date on which he draws the advance, failing such completion and payment, the full amount of the advance drawn, with interest thereon for one month, will be refunded to Government. An advance will not be admissible when a motor-car has already been purchased and paid for in full. In a case in which payment has been made in part the amount of advance will be limited to the balance to be paid as certified by the Officer of Parliament.

6. Execution of Agreement .— At the time of drawing the advance the Officer of Parliament will be required to execute an agreement in Form I and, on completing the purchase, he will further be required to execute a mortgage bond in Form II hypothecating the motor-car to the Government as security for the advance. The cost price of the motor-car shall be entered in the schedule of specifications attached to the mortgage bond.

¹{7. Certificate to the Pay and Accounts Officer .— When an advance is drawn, the sanctioning authority shall furnish to the Pay and Accounts Officer, Council of States / House of the People, a certificate that the Agreement in Form I has been signed by the Officer of Parliament drawing the advance and that it has been found to be in order. The sanctioning authority shall see that the motor-car is purchased within one month from the date on which the advance is drawn and shall submit the mortgage bond promptly to the Pay and Accounts Officer, Council of States/House of the People for examination before final record. }

8. Safe custody and cancellation of mortgage bond- The mortgage bond shall be kept in the safe custody of the sanctioning authority. When the advance has been fully repaid, the
