

PRESS RELEASE

The Union Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs (MPA) is scheduled to organize an Orientation Course in Parliamentary Practice and Procedure for the benefit of Assistant Secretaries (fresh IAS officers of 2017 Batch) tomorrow i.e. the 17th July, 2019 in Parliament House Annexe, New Delhi.

A host of dignitaries will grace the occasion which includes Sh. Om Birla, Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha, Sh. Pralhad Venkatesh Joshi, Hon'ble Minister of Parliamentary Affairs, Sh. Arjun Ram Meghwal and Sh. V. Muraleedharan, the two Ministers of State in the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs and Sh. Bhaskar Khulbe, Secretary to Hon'ble Prime Minister of India.

Two technical sessions have been organized for Assistant Secretaries (IAS officers of Batch 2017), the first being a Power Point Presentation to be made by the Joint Secretary, MPA on Parliamentary Practice and Procedure while the second Presentation will be made by the Secretary, MPA which pertains to National E-Vidhan Project, popularly known as NeVA. At the end, the officers will have an opportunity to watch the proceedings of the Lok Sabha, with attraction being the Guillotining of Demands for the year 2019-20 which is slated to take place at 1800 hrs on that day.

The Short Course will prove to be immensely useful for the young officers and will surely enrich and enhance their repository of knowledge and experience.

**